

Front-end

Backend

Database ORM

persistentie laag

Means for the user to use our service.

API endpoints:
Includes full communication between frontend and backend. This now works via an HTTPS request from the webUI to a backend service

The backend listens to the requests from the endpoints and will process these requests with the authorized service(s)

Abstraction of the database

The actual storage medium for the data